Events Volunteer

Role Description

Outgoing volunteers who enjoy engaging with family visitors – demonstrating, explaining, supervising and possibly scoring. You will be offered the opportunity to assist with both our annual events, such as the Unusual Plants Fair, Gilbert Games, Mulled Wine Weekend and other events such as our outdoor theatre. Your involvement can range in helping with the set up and take down, to assisting with activities and helping provide information the public.

Time Commitment

We ask a time commitment of at least half a day for an event. This can include set up and take down days.

Personal Qualities

Responsible, friendly, an outgoing personality confident in speaking with members of the public with a sense of fun and enjoyment. Ideal for anyone with, or looking to gain, experience in a customer-facing role.

Requirements

Personable individual, good communication skills, team player.
