Wedding Viewing Guide

Role Description

We are looking for some volunteers to show prospective couples around the facilities that they could use for their special day including our Hampshire Barn and grounds. You will be trained to confidently answer typical questions and promote the Museum as a wedding venue whilst accurately describing the wedding packages available.

Time Commitment

Predominately at the weekends – Viewings typically take two to three hours depending on the facilities the couple wish to look at. Viewing appointments are made at mutually convenient times to suit prospective couple and viewing guide.

Personal Qualities

Good customer skills, friendly, reliable, enthusiastic and polite – ideal for anyone with experience in customer facing or sales roles.

Requirements

Able to address members of the public in a polite, professional and friendly way, in accordance with our equal opportunities policy and with sensitivity to their individual beliefs. Smart appearance. Training provided
