Press Photographer

Role Description

As a busy museum of national importance with an ever-increasing public profile, Gilbert White's needs the help of volunteers with a talent for photography. Can you assist us in creating well-composed high-resolution digital photographs for use in press releases, online media and leaflets?

Time Commitment

Availability during key events and special occasions. We also need to stage photos for press releases ahead of the events themselves, which can be arranged in advance to suit you.

Key Dates:

See current Events Programme.

Personal Qualities

Artistic eye, desire to practise and develop photography skills, organised and reliable.

Requirements

Basic digital camera, photography, and computer skills.

Training will be provided on copyright, photo permissions and our child protection policy, but you will not need to be CRB checked. Induction will also be given in the use of our digital filing system for photographs.
